

Waunakee Rotary Club

July 12, 2007
Vol. 40 No. 52

The Waunakee Rotary Club's new president, Lynne Spielman, led the members in club assembly at the July 5 meeting. Lynne noted that the board of directors meeting will be at 7:30 a.m. July 11 at Culver's, and all members are invited to attend.

Lori Derauf said the international committee is preparing for the exchange student who will be arriving and the Interact club committee for the fall. Lynne said it is important to have members volunteer with the youth exchange as the club is already making a commitment for a student to come the following year.

Tom Reis said the community service committee is planning for the senior citizen picnic July 11 at Centennial Park. Connie Blau said the picnic will be at noon, although people are needed to show up early, and they could use more volunteers. If anyone has a gas grill to bring, that would help, too. That committee is also working on ideas for the Rotary Club's parade float.

Lynne reported that the international committee is working on two projects in Nigeria, including a micro-lending project.

Roberta Baumann of the membership committee said a previous member, Jonny Buroker, had planned to rejoin the club.

Jim Tubbs of the meetings committee reported that speakers are lined up into mid August and then the club has speakers booked into October.

Jeremiah Gollon said the fellowship committee is planning a trip to the Mallards game July 18. It is open to families. The next event will be the Northern Bay golf outing. Also, a Service Club Olympics sign-up sheet will soon be circulating.

For fund raising, Phil Willems said the club may have found a way to save the Super Bowl Sunday event. The idea is to raise the raffle ticket price to $10, with the meal at $10 as well.

Other items:

- Lynne asked members to try to attend the July 19 meeting, when District Governor Mary Kessens will be the speaker. Next week's speaker is Mary Dowling of Sharing Resources Worldwide, an organization that ships medical equipment to other countries.

- On a sad note, Lynne noted that longtime Rotarian Romie Ripp had passed away.

- Harriet Statz informed the club that the Rotary Rustic Road Rally is planned for Oct. 14 in Galena, Ill. It will be an overnight event with lodging in an Irish inn, she said. Harriet said she will need an early commitment to book the rooms.
