Waunakee
Rotary Club

Dec. 29, 2005
Vol. 38, No. 25

The Waunakee Rotary Club had an abridged meeting Dec. 22, allowing time to sing Christmas carols at the Waunakee Manor.

The club inducted Mike Ripp and Kim Lengfeld as new members. Mike is the son of longtime Rotarian Romie Ripp. He was born in Waunakee and attended the University of Wisconsin. Mike lived in a variety of places before returning to the Waunakee community 10 years ago. He has worked as a stock broker, a computer consultant, a real estate agent, a pharmacist, among other things.

Kim is a resident of Token Creek and has filled Jason Brown's position at M&I Bank. She has three children, including a son who recently returned from Iraq.

Also, President Greg Garton reported that Saturday evening's Rotary in Lights event saw a steady flow of traffic and raised $601. With his happy buck, the club earned $602.

The holiday party is Jan. 6 from 6-9 p.m. at Rex's Innkeeper. A bowling outing has been scheduled for Jan. 22.
