Waunakee Rotary Club

March 9, 2006
Vol. 38, No. 35

Waunakee Rotary Club held Club Assembly March 2.

The board of directors has approved two $1,000 scholarships in 2006.

The board also approved the spending of $420 to send Meghan Sullivan to the World Affairs Seminar at UW-Whitewater.

Rotary has received two grants totaling $4,000 from the village tourism fund. The grants are for the Rotary Plaza and the holiday lights project.

The club made $1,800 at the Super Bowl Sunday event.

After next week's meeting, the speaker, gubernatorial candidate Scott Walker, would like to meet with members of the general public.

Whitetails Unlimited event went well. Details will come later.

Ray Statz presented a fund-raising opportunity – sales of a cedar board for cooking salmon. This kind of item can cost $30 at a sporting goods store.

The board has approved the memberships of Tom Laufenberg and Robert Tucker.

Committees presented their reports. Here's some of what they had to say:

- 2006 will be full of many of the fellowship activities Rotarians have become accustomed to. A new addition might be a dinner train outing. The Christmas party was well attended. That event seems to work better after the first of the year.

- The club may work on a pedestrian bridge in the conservancy. Super Raffle tickets are selling well. Oktoberfest will be an even that is run by the Rotary for the benefit of the Waunakee Community Foundation.

- Kathy Palet has agreed to head up the golf outing in June.

- Phil Willems and Bill Erickson are active on the Honduras project. Money has been sent for the Peru project. The International Committee is looking for a new chair.

- The club will try to promote involvement in the holiday lights project at Waunafest.

A sales rep, a clerk and their manager are walking to lunch when they find an antique oil lamp. They rub it and a genie comes out.

The genie says, "I'll give each of you just one wish."

The clerk goes first. "I want to be in the Bahamas, driving a speedboat without a care in the world."

Poof! She's gone!

"Me next!" says the sales rep. "I want to be in Hawaii, relaxing on the beach with my personal masseuse, an endless supply of pina colodas and the love of my life."

Poof! He's gone!

The genie turns to the manager, who says, "I want those two back in the office after lunch."

Moral: Always let the boss have the first say.
